

Carol Williams

D.M.A., ARAM, Dip Ram, AD (Yale), FRCO, FTCL, ARCM, San Diego Civic Organist Emerita

Ambition:

"I want to bring the pipe organ to new audiences and, with my performances, make people feel good."

Education:

British born, Carol was raised in a Welsh family with many musical influence and began private lessons at age five and could read music before she could read English. She began performing organ recitals at age eight.

Carol's formal training started with five years at the Royal Academy of Music where she specialized in organ performing as a student of David Sanger and obtained the Academy's prestigious Recital Diploma together with an LRAM (organ) and an LRAM (piano).

Carol was awarded all the major prizes for organ performance and, during her studies she became a Fellow of the Royal College of Organists; a Fellow of Trinity College London; and an Associate of the Royal College of Music. Carol continued her studies with the Organist at the Church of St. Sulpice, Paris, Daniel Roth.

Moving to the United States she undertook postgraduate study at Yale University under the direction of Professor Thomas Murray and was awarded an Artist Diploma together with the Charles Ives prize for outstanding achievement.

Carol undertook her Doctoral studies with Professor McNeil Robinson at the Manhattan School of Music and received the Helen Cohn award for her D.M.A. degree in 2001. She then applied and was appointed the first woman "in the world" to hold the title of "Civic Organist" and now the first woman "Civic Organist Emerita" as San Diego Civic Organist from 2001-2016.

History:

Carol's has circled the globe to numerous popular pipe organ venues in the USA as well as England, Sweden, Finland, Estonia, Monaco, Luxembourg, Holland, Poland, Germany, Denmark, Singapore, South Korea, China and Russia, so far.

Carol throws out a wide net to entice new audiences to the concert pipe organ. She is known for her collaborations with various Classical, Jazz, Blues, Pop and Rock bands and leading orchestras including the BBC Concert Orchestra, San Diego Symphony Orchestra and the Beijing Symphony Orchestra.

As a featured musician on many Blogs, PodCasts, Radio Stations and TV News stories in America, the United Kingdom and around the world, she always highlights her profound love of "The King of Instruments".

In the United Kingdom, Carol has been elected an Associate of the Royal Academy of Music (ARAM) in recognition of her contribution to music.

Carol has performed for many special occasions including for Princes Diana, the Virgil Fox Memorial Concert in New York and was highlighted in the 10th anniversary special concert of the Walt Disney Concert Hall Organ celebration.

Church Affiliations:

Chapel Organist, Yale University, NJ

Associate Organist at the Cathedral of the Incarnation in Long Island's Garden City, NY

Artist in Residence at St. Paul's Cathedral in San Diego, CA

Artist in Residence at Court Street Methodist Church, Lynchburg, VA

Presently:

- Composer

- Concert Organist

- San Diego Civic Organist Emerita

- Director of The Virginia International Organ Festival

- Host of the "TourBus" documentary series

(featuring the great & small, famous & unique pipe organs of the world, its music, people and places)

- Host of the YouTube series "On The Bench with Dr. Carol"

(interviewing musicians)

Philanthropy:

Carol donates over 20 hours a year performing fund raising concerts for awareness of various charitable organizations.

Appeal:

Carol gives a new spin to the "classical organ concert" with her programs of vast genre diversity, elegance and charismatic humor. Her performances are received with "rock star" enthusiasm.

Managed by Kerry J. Bell management@melcot.com

Web: www.melcot.com Tweet: @DrCarolWilliams FaceBook: Dr. Carol Williams

P.O. Box 186, Amherst, VA 24521

USA: 619-540-6008